STUDENT'S PERSONAL STATEMENT

On separate paper, write two essays (1-2 pages each) that answer the following questions. Choose one question from group one and one question from group two.

Group One Questions (Choose One):

- Describe a time you set a goal for yourself and failed to accomplish that goal. Explain what you learned from that experience and how it has affected you.
- Describe a recent time when you found yourself deeply engaged in a classroom learning experience. What about this experience motivated you and made you want to know more?

Group Two Questions (Choose One):

- Imagine yourself 25 or 30 years from now – you are leaving your first career and are about to embark upon a second career as a humanitarian. To what charity or humanitarian cause will you dedicate your life and why?
- You are part of a team that will be sending a fingerprint of humanity into space. Your task is to assemble a panel of people (from the past and present) to explain what it means to be a “human being.” You can choose up to five people. Who would they be and why?
